Olympian and WBC Continental America's Champion, Jose Ramirez who is currently ranked #5 in the world is (20-0 15 KO's) coming off a second round victory as the main event on National TV this past weekend and will now fight Friday August 4th at Chukchansi Park Stadium in Fresno, Ca as the main event on a National Telecast and defend his WBC Title.

"This fight will determine if I am ready for a world title, it will be the biggest fight and opponent of my career and I'm honored to be the first to go in to this stadium and it be at home but there is no bigger fight then that for water and building the Temperance Flat dam is very important to the Central Valley that feeds the world and that's the real fight right now" - Jose Ramirez

"We push ourselves, we challenge ourselves and the harder we work the luckier we get, I love being the first to do something and this is a first in so many ways, I won't sleep for 90 days but it will be worth it to try and fill 16,000 people in the stadium for Ramirez at home" - Rick Mirigian
